I. NON-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE AND GENERAL POLICY STATEMENT

The Toyota Technical Institute at Chicago ("TTIC") does not discriminate on the basis of sex and prohibits Sex Discrimination in its Education Programs or Activities as required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1974, and other applicable state and local laws. TTIC's prohibition on Sex Discrimination extends to all aspects of its operations, including admissions and employment. TTIC also prohibits various forms of Retaliation as provided by law. Reports and Complaints of Sex Discrimination may be made to TTIC’s Title IX Coordinator, whose contact information is specified below.

TTIC’s Sex Discrimination, Sex-Based Harassment and Pregnancy Modifications Policy implements TTIC’s prohibition on Sex Discrimination, contains information on how to report Sex Discrimination, and sets forth TTIC’s processes for investigating and adjudicating allegations of Sex Discrimination. The Policy prohibits all forms of Sex Discrimination, including Adverse Treatment Sex Discrimination, Policy or Practice Sex Discrimination, and Sex-Based Harassment, which includes Quid Pro Quo Harassment, Hostile Environment Harassment, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking.

Members of the TTIC Community who commit Sex Discrimination are subject to the full range of TTIC discipline including verbal reprimand; written reprimand; mandatory training, coaching, or counseling; mandatory monitoring; partial or full probation; partial or full suspension; demotion; fines; permanent separation from the institution (that is, termination or dismissal); physical restriction from TTIC property; cancellation of contracts; and any combination of the same.

TTIC will provide persons who have experienced Sex Discrimination ongoing remedies as reasonably necessary to restore or preserve access to TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

Consistent with Title IX, TTIC also provides certain supports and modifications for persons who are experiencing pregnancy or pregnancy related conditions. TTIC is committed to providing all students and employees with the opportunity to pursue and attain their individual goals as it relates to TTIC’s admissions, employment, and educational programs or activities. This commitment includes TTIC’s students and employees who are pregnant, parenting, or experiencing pregnancy related conditions. TTIC prohibits differential treatment or discrimination against students and employees based on the student or employee’s current, potential, or past parental, family, marital status, or pregnancy or related condition.

TTIC has designated a Title IX Coordinator to respond to questions about the Policy and Title IX and its implementing regulations; to receive Reports and Complaints of Sex Discrimination as further explained in the Policy, and to coordinate and oversee TTIC’s response to Sex Discrimination as dictated by the Policy and applicable laws and regulations. The Title IX Coordinator’s name and contact information is:
The name and contact information for the Deputy Title IX Coordinator is:

Christina Coleman
Administrative Director of Graduate Studies, Deputy Title IX Coordinator
6045 S. Kenwood Ave.
Chicago, Illinois 60637
Phone: 773-834-2216
Email: ccoleman@ttic.edu

The Title IX Coordinator may assign one or more designees to carry out some of TTIC’s responsibilities for compliance with Title IX and its implementing regulations, but the Title IX Coordinator retains ultimate oversight for those responsibilities.

In addition to the Title IX Coordinator, questions about Title IX and its implementing regulations may be referred to the U.S. Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights (“OCR”). Contact information for OCR is available at this link.

II. DEFINITIONS

Capitalized terms have the meaning described in Appendix 1 “Definitions.”

III. SCOPE

This Policy applies to Sex Discrimination that occurs within TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities and that is committed by a member of TTIC Community.

This Policy does not apply to Sex Discrimination that occurs outside the scope of TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities. Nevertheless, TTIC will address a sex-based hostile environment under its Education Programs or Activities even when some conduct alleged to be contributing to the hostile environment occurred outside the Education Programs or Activities or outside of the United States.

While this Policy is the exclusive policy governing Sex Discrimination that occurs within TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities, Reports and Complaints of Sex Discrimination may implicate conduct that violates other TTIC policies and standards. TTIC retains full discretion to enforce its other policies and standards with respect to applicable conduct, whether prior to, at the same time as, or after allegations of Sex Discrimination have been resolved pursuant to this Policy.
IV. REPORTING SEX DISCRIMINATION

Any person may report Sex Discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator. Reports may be made in person, by regular mail, telephone, electronic mail, or by any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the person’s Report. In-person Reports must be made during normal business hours, but Reports can be made by regular mail, telephone, or electronic mail at any time, including outside normal business hours. Reports can be made anonymously via TTIC’s online system at http://www.ttic.edu/complaintform.

All TTIC Reporting Officials, who are not designated as Confidential Advisors, are required to promptly report potential Sex Discrimination in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities to the Title IX Coordinator. “Reporting Officials” include all administrative staff, all TTIC tenure-track faculty, and any person instructing or advising students, during the period of instruction or advisement. A Reporting Official’s duty to Report is triggered when: (1) the Reporting Official receives a Report of potential Sex Discrimination from another person; (2) the Reporting Official observes potential Sex Discrimination; or (3) the Reporting Official learns about potential Sex Discrimination through some other means.

Upon receiving information of conduct that might violate this Policy, all TTIC Employees who are not Reporting Officials must provide the reporter with the Title IX Coordinator’s contact information, as well as information regarding how to make a Complaint of Sex Discrimination.

A. Confidential Reporting

TTIC recognizes that individuals who feel they have been victims of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking may require time and support in considering whether or how to participate in any TTIC or law enforcement process. TTIC also recognizes that individuals who have been accused of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking may also require support. There are confidential resources on campus and in the community available to any individual who needs support or assistance.

1. On-Campus Confidential Advisor

Individuals wishing to receive confidential assistance without making a report to TTIC may speak with TTIC’s Confidential Advisor. This confidential resource is available to assist you and will not report your circumstances to TTIC without your permission unless otherwise required to do so by law (such as when the victim is a minor). A Confidential Advisor is available to discuss incidents or accusations of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking with both Complainants and Respondents in confidence, and provide emotional support in a safe and confidential space.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, when necessary, the on-campus Confidential Advisor will make a non-identifying report to the appropriate TTIC personnel so that reported crimes can be included in TTIC’s annual crime statistics disclosure. Disclosures to a Confidential Advisor will not trigger TTIC’s investigation into an incident.

TTIC’s Confidential Advisor receives forty hours (40) of initial training regarding sexual violence and participate in six (6) hours of annual continuing education thereafter. In addition to providing confidential counseling, Confidential Advisor also provides emergency and ongoing support to individuals who have experienced or been accused of Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking including:

- Providing information regarding the individual’s reporting options and possible outcomes, including making a report or a Complaint under this Policy and notifying local law enforcement;

- Providing information about available resources and services, including but not limited to services available on campus and through community-based resources such as sexual assault crisis centers, medical treatment facilities, counseling services, legal resources, medical forensic services and mental health services;

- Providing information regarding orders of protection, no contact orders or similar lawful orders issued by TTIC or a criminal or civil court;

- An explanation of the individual’s right to have privileged, confidential communications with the Confidential Advisor consistent with applicable law;

- Upon request and as appropriate, providing assistance in contacting campus officials, community-based sexual assault crisis centers, campus security and/or local law enforcement; and/or

- Upon request, providing assistance with securing Supportive Measures and accommodations.

TTIC has designated Resilience to provide TTIC students with 24/7 access to a Confidential Advisor who can provide victims with information on both TTIC and community-based resources and immediate referrals. It also provides long-term information on the rights of victims and TTIC’s responsibilities regarding interim and long-term accommodations, orders of protection, no-contact orders, and other similar court orders. Resilience also provides medical and legal advocacy and counseling services (individual and group). Services are free for survivors or friends/partners of survivors.

For 24-hour assistance, call (773) 907-1062.

2. Public Awareness Events

From time to time, TTIC may host public awareness events regarding Sex Discrimination, whether such events occur in person on campus or through an online platform. When potential Sex Discrimination is disclosed in the context of a public awareness event, TTIC will not act on the information solely because of the disclosure at the public awareness event, unless the information reveals an immediate and serious threat to the health or safety of any person. However, the Title IX Coordinator will use information disclosed during a public awareness event to inform efforts to prevent Sex Discrimination, including by providing tailored training and education.

The Title IX Coordinator will monitor TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities for any barriers to reporting potential Sex Discrimination and take steps reasonably calculated to address any such barriers.

V. SPECIAL ADVICE FOR INDIVIDUALS WHO HAVE EXPERIENCED SEXUAL ASSAULT, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, OR STALKING

If you believe you are the victim of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, or Dating Violence, TTIC recommends the following:

● If the incident has just occurred, get to a safe place as soon as possible.

● Contact law enforcement by calling 911.

● Try to preserve all physical evidence related to the incident—avoid bathing, using the toilet, rinsing one’s mouth, or changing clothes to facilitate the efficacy of a forensic examination. If it is necessary, put all clothing that was worn at the time of the incident in a paper bag, not a plastic one.

● Do not launder or discard bedding or otherwise clean the area where the assault occurred – preserve for law enforcement.

● Get medical attention and consider consenting to a forensic examination. Medical forensic examinations are available at no charge. A forensic examination may result in the collection of evidence that will be needed if you decide to make a report to police. Most local hospitals have forensic examination protocols and those that do not can refer you elsewhere. Take a full change of clothing, including shoes, for use after a medical examination.

● Preserve all forms of electronic communication that occurred before, during, or after the assault.

● Contact a trusted person, such as a friend or family member for support.

● Talk with a professional licensed counselor, chaplain, or health care provider who can help explain options, give information, and provide emotional support.

● Make a report to the Title IX Coordinator.

● Explore potential avenues for investigation and determination under this Policy.
It is also important to take steps to preserve evidence in cases of Stalking, to the extent such evidence exists. Such evidence is more likely to be in the form of letters, emails, text messages, electronic images, and social media exchanges, rather than evidence of physical contact and violence. This type of non-physical evidence will also be useful in all types of Sex-Based Harassment investigations.

Once a report of Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking is made, the victim has several options such as, but not limited to:

- Obtaining Supportive Measures.
- Contacting parents or a relative.
- Seeking legal advice.
- Seeking personal counseling.
- Pursuing criminal or civil legal action against the perpetrator.
- Submitting a Complaint to the Title IX Coordinator.
- Requesting that no further action be taken.

The University of Chicago Police Department can also assist individuals with understanding the rights of victims and the responsibilities of TTIC and UChicago regarding orders of protection and similar court orders.

VI. PRELIMINARY ASSESSMENT

After receiving a Report of potential Sex Discrimination the Title IX Coordinator will conduct a preliminary assessment to determine:

- Whether the conduct, as reported, falls or may fall within the scope of this Policy (see “Scope”); and
- Whether the conduct, as reported, constitutes or may constitute Sex Discrimination.

If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the conduct reported does not and could not fall within the scope of the Policy, and/or does not and could not constitute Sex Discrimination, even if investigated further, the Title IX Coordinator will close the matter and may notify the reporting party if doing so is consistent with FERPA. The Title IX Coordinator may refer the report to other TTIC offices, as appropriate.

If the Title IX Coordinator determines that the conduct reported could fall within the scope of this Policy, and/or could constitute Sex Discrimination, if investigated further, the Title IX Coordinator will proceed to contact the Complainant (see “Contacting the Complainant”).
As part of the preliminary assessment, the Title IX Coordinator may take investigative steps to determine the identity of the Complainant, if it is not apparent from the Report.

VII. CONTACTING THE COMPLAINANT

If a Report is not closed as a result of the preliminary assessment (see “Preliminary Assessment”) and the Complainant’s identity is known, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly contact the Complainant to discuss the availability of Supportive Measures (see “Supportive Measures”); to discuss and consider the Complainant’s wishes with respect to Supportive Measures; to inform the Complainant about the availability of Supportive Measures with or without making a Complaint; to explain the process for making a Complaint; and to advise the Complainant of the investigation and adjudication procedures set forth in this Policy. The Complainant will also be provided options for filing complaints with local law enforcement and information about resources that are available on campus and in the community.

VIII. SUPPORTIVE MEASURES

A. Availability of Supportive Measures

If a Report is not closed as a result of the preliminary assessment (see “Preliminary Assessment”), the Title IX Coordinator will offer and make available Supportive Measures to the Complainant regardless of whether the Complainant elects to make a Complaint.

Contemporaneously with the Respondent being notified of a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Respondent of the availability of Supportive Measures for the Respondent, and TTIC will offer and make available Supportive Measures to the Respondent in the same manner in which it offers and makes them available to the Complainant. TTIC will also offer and make available Supportive Measures to the Respondent prior to the Respondent being notified of a Complaint, if the Respondent requests such measures.

Supportive Measures that burden a Respondent will only be imposed after a Complaint is made and will be terminated at the conclusion of the investigation and adjudication process. Supportive Measures that burden a Respondent must be no more restrictive of the Respondent than is necessary to restore or preserve the Complainant’s access to TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities and will not be imposed for punitive or disciplinary reasons.

For Supportive Measures, other than those that burden a Respondent, TTIC may, as appropriate, modify or terminate such Supportive Measures at the conclusion of the investigation and adjudication process or at the conclusion of any informal resolution process, or TTIC may continue them beyond that point.

Either party may request that the Title IX Coordinator modify, augment, or terminate Supportive Measures, after their imposition, if circumstances have changed materially.
If a party affected by Supportive Measures qualifies as a person with a disability under applicable law, the Title IX Coordinator may consult, as appropriate, with the individual or office at TTIC designated to provide support to persons with disabilities to ensure that TTIC complies with relevant disability law in the implementation of Supportive Measures.

Supportive Measures are confidential and will not be disclosed to persons other than the party to whom the Supportive Measure pertains unless wider disclosure is necessary to provide the Supportive Measure. TTIC may inform a party of Supportive Measures provided to or imposed on the other party only if necessary to restore or preserve that party’s access to TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

B. Right to Challenge Supportive Measure Decisions

If a party is affected by the Title IX Coordinator’s decision to provide, deny, modify, augment, or terminate Supportive Measures, and wishes to seek a modification or reversal of the decision, the party may appeal the matter to TTIC’s President. Such an appeal must be made in writing and generally must be made within seven (7) days of the date the party is notified of the decision that the party wishes to appeal, provided, however, that the President may hear appeals made outside the seven (7) day window for good cause shown, after considering all the facts and circumstances. If the Supportive Measures at issue in an appeal are ones that may affect the other party, the President will notify the potentially affected party and allow that party to submit a written response, prior to deciding the appeal. The decision of the President is final and not subject to further review.

If a Supportive Measure burdens the Respondent, the Respondent will be given an opportunity to appeal the imposition of the Supportive Measure prior to the Supportive Measure taking effect unless such pre-imposition appeal is impractical, in which case the Respondent will be given an opportunity to appeal as soon as possible after the Supportive Measure has taken effect.

IX. INTERIM REMOVAL

At any time after receiving a report of Sex Discrimination, the Title IX Coordinator may remove a Student Respondent from one or more of TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities on a temporary basis if an individualized safety and risk analysis determines that an immediate threat to the health or safety of any Student or other individual arising from the allegations of Sex Discrimination justifies removal. In the event the Title IX Coordinator imposes an interim removal, the interim removal is subject to appeal pursuant to the appeal procedure specified in “Right to Challenge Supportive Measure Decisions.”

In the case of a Respondent who is a non-student Employee (e.g., administrator, faculty, or staff), and in its discretion, TTIC may place the Respondent on full or partial administrative leave at any time after receiving a report of Sex Discrimination, including during the pendency of the investigation and adjudication process (see “Investigation” and “Adjudication Processes”).
For all other Respondents, including volunteers, guests, and independent contractors, TTIC retains broad discretion to prohibit such persons from entering onto its campus and other properties at any time, and for any reason, whether after receiving a report of Sex Discrimination or otherwise.

X. Making a Complaint

A person may make a Complaint with the Title IX Coordinator requesting that TTIC investigate and adjudicate Sex Discrimination in accordance with the provisions “Investigation” and “Adjudication.” Provided, however, that the person must (1) meet the definition of Complainant; (2) be a person who has the legal right to act on a Complainant’s behalf; (3) be the Title IX Coordinator; or (4) with respect to Complaints of Sex Discrimination other than Sex-Based Harassment, be a Student or Employee or a third-party who is participating or attempting to participate in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities when the alleged Sex Discrimination occurred.

Complaints may be made to the Title IX Coordinator in person, by regular mail, or by email using the contact information specified in “Reporting Sex Discrimination.”

In deference to the agency of alleged victims of Sex Discrimination, the Title IX Coordinator will exercise the authority to make a Complaint only after careful consideration of multiple factors suggests there is an immediate and serious threat to the health or safety of the Complainant or other person or where not making a Complaint would prevent TTIC from maintaining a non-discriminatory environment. Such factors to be considered include: (1) the Complainant’s request not to proceed with initiation of a complaint; (2) the Complainant’s reasonable safety concerns regarding initiation of a Complaint; (3) the risk of additional Sex Discrimination; (4) the severity of the alleged Sex Discrimination, including whether the discrimination, if established, would require the removal of the Respondent from campus or imposition of another disciplinary sanction to end the discrimination and prevent its recurrence; (5) the age and relationship of the parties involved; (6) whether the alleged perpetrator is an Employee; (7) the scope of the alleged Sex Discrimination, including information suggesting a pattern, ongoing Sex Discrimination, or Sex Discrimination alleged to have impacted multiple individuals; (8) the availability of evidence; and (9) whether TTIC could end the alleged Sex Discrimination and prevent its recurrence without initiating the investigation and adjudication procedures.

If the Title IX Coordinator makes a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the Complainant prior to doing so and appropriately address reasonable concerns about the Complainant’s safety or the safety of others, including by providing Supportive Measures.

If the Complainant or the Title IX Coordinator makes a Complaint, TTIC will commence an investigation as specified in “Investigation” and proceed to adjudicate the matter as specified in “Adjudication,” below. In all cases where a Complaint is made, the Complainant will be treated as a party, irrespective of the party’s level of participation.
In a case where the Title IX Coordinator makes a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will not act as a Complainant or otherwise as a party for purposes of the investigation and adjudication processes.

If the Title IX Coordinator elects not to make a Complaint, and no other person makes a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will still evaluate the need for and, if appropriate, implement other prompt and effective steps to ensure that Sex Discrimination does not continue or recur in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities and to remedy its effects, if any.

XI. CONSOLIDATION OF COMPLAINTS

TTIC may consolidate Complaints as to allegations of Sex Discrimination against more than one Respondent, or by more than one Complainant against one or more Respondents, or by one party against the other party, where the allegations of Sex Discrimination arise out of the same facts or circumstances. Where the investigation and adjudication processes involve more than one Complainant or more than one Respondent, references in this Policy to the singular “party,” “Complainant,” or “Respondent” include the plural, as applicable. A Complaint of Retaliation may be consolidated with a Complaint of Sex Discrimination.

XII. DISMISSAL OF COMPLAINT

Any time after a Complaint is made, the Title IX Coordinator may dismiss it for any of the following reasons:

- TTIC is unable to identify the Respondent after taking reasonable steps to do so.
- The Respondent is not participating in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities and is not employed by TTIC.
- The Complainant voluntarily withdraws any or all of the allegations in the Complaint, in writing, and the Title IX Coordinator determines that without the withdrawn allegations, the conduct that remains part of the Complaint, if any, would not constitute Sex Discrimination even if proven.
- After first taking reasonable efforts to clarify the allegations, the Title IX Coordinator determines that the conduct alleged in the Complaint, even if proven, would not constitute Sex Discrimination.

Upon dismissal, the Title IX Coordinator must promptly notify the Complainant of the dismissal and its basis, in writing. If the dismissal occurs after the Respondent has been notified of the Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator must also simultaneously notify the Respondent of the dismissal and its basis, in writing. The written notice to the Complainant and/or the Respondent, as applicable must advise the party of their right to appeal the dismissal pursuant to the procedures specified in “Appeal.”
Even when a Complaint is dismissed, the Complainant and, as applicable, the Respondent, are still eligible for Supportive Measures as set forth in “Supportive Measures,” and the Title IX Coordinator shall evaluate whether to take other prompt and effective steps to ensure that Sex Discrimination does not continue in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

XIII. NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

Within five (5) days of the Title IX Coordinator receiving a Complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will transmit a written notice to the Complainant and Respondent that includes:

- A full copy of this Policy, whether in physical or electronic form.
- Sufficient information available at the time to allow the parties to respond to the allegations. Sufficient information includes the identities of the parties involved in the incident, the conduct alleged to constitute Sex Discrimination, and the date and location of the alleged incident, to the extent that information is available to TTIC.
- A statement that the Respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged Sex Discrimination until an adjudication of responsibility is made final and that the parties will have an opportunity to present relevant evidence to a trained, impartial decisionmaker prior to such adjudication being made.
- A statement that the party is entitled to receive access to relevant evidence or to an investigative report that accurately summarizes the evidence; if TTIC provides the party with a summary of the relevant evidence, the parties will have an equal opportunity to access the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence upon the request of any party.
- Notification to the Complainant and Respondent of TTIC’s prohibitions on Retaliation and false statements specified in “Bad Faith Complaints and False Information” and “Retaliation.”
- If the case is one involving Sex-Based Harassment and a Student Complainant or Student Respondent, a statement that the party may be accompanied by an advisor of their choice, who may be an attorney, and who is permitted to fulfill the role described in “Advisor of Choice.”

If there are legitimate concerns for the safety of any person because of providing the written notice of Complaint, providing such written notice may be reasonably delayed to address the safety concern appropriately. Safety concerns that would justify delay of providing the written notice must be based on an individualized safety and risk analysis and not mere speculation or stereotypes. In any event, the written notice of Complaint will be provided to a party sufficiently in advance of their initial investigative interview such that the party has sufficient time to prepare.
Should TTIC elect, at any point, to investigate allegations that are materially beyond the scope of the initial written notice, TTIC will provide a supplemental written notice describing the additional allegations to be investigated.

XIV. INVESTIGATION

A. Commencement and Timing

After the written notice of a Complaint is transmitted to the parties, the Title IX Coordinator, or an investigator selected by the Title IX Coordinator, will undertake an investigation to gather evidence relevant to the alleged Sex Discrimination, including inculpatory and exculpatory evidence. The burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination in the adjudication lies with TTIC and not with the parties. Although the length of each investigation may vary depending on the totality of the circumstances, TTIC strives to complete each investigation within thirty (30) to forty-five (45) days of the transmittal of the written notice of the Complaint.

B. Fair Notice and Equal Opportunity

During the investigation, the investigator will provide advance written notice to a party of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of all meetings and investigative interviews pertaining to that party, with sufficient time for the party to prepare to participate. The investigator will provide an equal opportunity for the parties to be interviewed, to identify witnesses (including fact witnesses), and to present other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the investigator retains discretion to limit the number of witness interviews the investigator conducts if the investigator finds that testimony would be unreasonably cumulative, if the witnesses are offered solely as character references and do not have information relevant to the allegations at issue, or if the witnesses are offered to render testimony that is categorically inadmissible under “Inadmissible Evidence and Impermissible Questioning.” The investigator will not restrict the ability of the parties to gather and present relevant evidence on their own.

The investigation is a party’s opportunity to present testimonial and other evidence that the party believes is Relevant to the allegations in the Complaint. A party who is aware of and has a reasonable opportunity to present particular evidence and/or identify particular witnesses during the investigation, and elects not to, will be prohibited from introducing any such evidence during the adjudication absent a showing of mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.

C. Documentation of Investigation

The investigator will take reasonable steps to ensure the investigation is documented. Interviews of the parties and witnesses may be documented by the investigator’s notes, audio recorded, video recorded, or transcribed. The particular method utilized to record the interviews of parties and witnesses will be determined by the investigator in the investigator’s sole discretion, although whatever method is chosen shall be used consistently throughout a particular investigation, to the extent possible.

XV. ADJUDICATION PROCESSES

A. Preparation of the Investigation Report, Appointment of the Adjudicator, and Notification to the Parties

After the evidence gathering phase of the investigation is completed, the investigator will prepare a written investigation report that summarizes the investigation and the investigator will provide an equal opportunity to access either the relevant and not otherwise impermissible evidence upon request by a party, or provide an accurate description of this evidence. The investigator will then notify the Title IX Coordinator that the investigation is complete and transmit the investigation report and its appended evidence to the Title IX Coordinator and to the parties.

The Title IX Coordinator will then appoint an adjudicator whose responsibility it will be to adjudicate the Complaint. The adjudicator may be the investigator or other designee selected by the President. Within three (3) days of being notified about the adjudicator’s identity, either party may raise concerns, if any, about bias or conflict of interest to the Title IX Coordinator or, if the concerns relate to the Title IX Coordinator as adjudicator, to the President.

The investigation report and its appended evidence will be transmitted to the adjudicator. The adjudicator will promptly send written notice to the parties notifying the parties of the adjudicator’s appointment; setting a deadline for the parties to submit a written response to the investigation report and its appended evidence which shall not be sooner than seven (7) days from the date the investigator transmitted the investigation report; and setting a date and time for each party to meet with the adjudicator separately. The adjudicator’s meetings with the parties will not be held any earlier than ten (10) days from the date the investigator transmitted the investigation report to the parties.

B. Response to the Investigation Report

A party’s written response to the investigation report must include:

● To the extent the party wishes to respond to any aspect of the investigation report or evidence, any such response.

● A statement as to whether the party contends the credibility of the other party or any witness is in dispute; if so, how such credibility dispute is relevant in evaluating any of the allegations in the Complaint.

● A list of questions the party contends should be posed to the other party and any witnesses.
● Any argument that a particular piece or class of evidence should be categorically excluded from consideration based on any one or more of the standards specified in “Inadmissible Evidence and Impermissible Questioning.”

● Argument regarding whether any of the allegations in the Complaint are supported by a preponderance of the evidence.

● Argument regarding whether any of the allegations in the Complaint constitute Sex Discrimination

While the party may receive assistance in preparing the written response, the written response must be submitted and signed by the party themself or someone with legal authority to act on their behalf.

C. Meetings with Parties and Witnesses

After reviewing the parties’ written responses to the investigation report, the adjudicator will meet separately with each party to ask questions, including questions posed by the other party, concerning the party’s written response, the investigation report, and/or the evidence collected during the investigation, including questions that may bear on credibility. The adjudicator may also meet with specific witnesses whose credibility is in dispute, and whose testimony is potentially relevant in evaluating any allegations in the Complaint, to pose questions that may bear on credibility.

When a Complaint includes Sex-Based Harassment allegations involving a Student Complainant or Student Respondent, the individual meetings will be video and/or audio recorded. The adjudicator will provide copies of the recordings, or transcripts of the recordings, to the parties. Each party will have seven (7) days to review the recordings or transcripts and propose follow-up questions to be posed to the other party and/or witnesses. The adjudicator will then meet promptly with parties and/or witnesses to pose follow-up questions, as deemed appropriate by the adjudicator.

The adjudicator will screen questions submitted by the parties to ensure they are clear, relevant, and not harassing, and will exclude questions and evidence that are inadmissible under “Inadmissible Evidence and Impermissible Questioning.” The adjudicator will give a party an opportunity to clarify or revise a question that the adjudicator has determined is unclear or harassing and, if the advisor sufficiently clarifies or revises the question, the question will be posed.

D. Subjection to Questioning

In the event a party or witness who was interviewed during the investigation declines to meet with the adjudicator or respond to questions that have been deemed relevant and not impermissible, the adjudicator may consider the individual’s statements, although the adjudicator must consider whether the individual’s failure to meet and/or respond to questions about their credibility should affect the weight to be given to such statement. The adjudicator may choose to place less or no weight upon the individual’s prior statements, provided that the adjudicator may not draw an inference about whether Sex-
Discrimination occurred based solely on a party’s or witness’ refusal to respond to questions.

E. Deliberation and Determination

After meeting with each party and any witnesses whose credibility is in dispute, the adjudicator will objectively evaluate all relevant evidence, including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence, and ensure that any credibility determinations made are not based on a person’s status as a Complainant, Respondent, or witness. The adjudicator will take care to exclude from consideration any evidence that the adjudicator determines is inadmissible on the grounds explained in “Inadmissible Evidence and Impermissible Questioning.” The adjudicator will resolve disputed facts using a preponderance of the evidence (that is, “more likely than not”) standard and reach a determination regarding whether the facts that are supported by a preponderance of the evidence constitute one or more violations of the Policy as alleged in the Complaint.

In the event the adjudicator determines that the Respondent is responsible for violating this Policy, the adjudicator will, prior to issuing a written decision, consult with an appropriate TTIC official with disciplinary authority over the Respondent and such official will determine any discipline to be imposed. The adjudicator will also, prior to issuing a written decision, consult with the Title IX Coordinator who will determine whether and to what extent ongoing support measures or other remedies will be provided to the Complainant and other persons, as appropriate. The adjudicator may seek legal advice from TTIC’s in-house or outside counsel.

F. Written Decision

After reaching a determination and consulting with the appropriate TTIC official and Title IX Coordinator, as necessary, the adjudicator will prepare a written decision that will include:

- A description of the alleged Sex Discrimination.
- Information about the policies and procedures TTIC used to evaluate the allegations.
- The adjudicator's evaluation of all relevant evidence and determination of whether Sex Discrimination occurred.
- When the adjudicator finds that Sex Discrimination occurred, discipline determined by the appropriate TTIC official.
- Whether the Complainant, Respondent, or, to the extent appropriate, other persons, will receive any ongoing Supportive Measures or other remedies as determined by the Title IX Coordinator.
- A description of TTIC’s process and grounds for appeal, as specified in “Appeal.”
The adjudicator will transmit the written decision to the Title IX Coordinator and the parties. Transmittal of the written decision to the parties concludes the adjudication process, subject to any right of appeal as specified in “Appeal.” Any discipline imposed will be stayed pending the completion of any appeal.

Although the length of time needed to issue the written decision will vary depending on the totality of the circumstances, TTIC strives to issue the adjudicator’s written decision within thirty (30) days of the adjudicator’s appointment.

XVI. APPEAL

Either party may appeal the written decision of an adjudication, or a dismissal of a Complaint, on one or more of the following grounds:

- A procedural irregularity that would change the determination of whether a Policy violation occurred.
- There is new evidence that would change the outcome of the matter and that was not reasonably available at the time the determination of whether the Policy was violated occurred or dismissal was made.
- The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or adjudicator, as the case may be, had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally, or against the individual Complainant or Respondent, that would change the outcome.
- The sanction is disproportionate with the violation.

No other grounds for appeal are permitted.

A party must file an appeal within seven (7) days of the date they receive notice the written decision or dismissal appealed from or, if the other party appeals, within three (3) days of receiving notice that the other party has appealed, whichever is later. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Deputy Title IX Coordinator, who serves as the appeal officer. The appeal must specifically identify the written decision and/or dismissal appealed from, articulate which one or more of the three grounds for appeal are being asserted, explain in detail why the appealing party believes the appeal should be granted, and articulate what specific relief the appealing party seeks.

Promptly upon receipt of an appeal, the appeal officer will conduct an initial evaluation to confirm that the appeal is timely filed and that it invokes at least one of the permitted grounds for appeal. If the appeal officer determines that the appeal is not timely, or that it fails to invoke a permitted ground for appeal, the appeal officer will dismiss the appeal and provide written notice of the same to the parties.

If the appeal officer confirms that the appeal is timely and invokes at least one permitted ground for appeal, the appeal officer will provide written notice to the other party that an appeal has been filed and that the other party may submit a written opposition to the appeal within seven (7) days. The appeal officer shall also promptly obtain from the Title IX Coordinator any records from the investigation and adjudication necessary to resolve the grounds raised in the appeal.

Upon receipt of any opposition, or after the time for submission of an opposition has passed without one being filed, the appeal officer will promptly decide the appeal and transmit a written decision to the parties that explains the outcome of the appeal and the rationale.

The determination of a Complaint, including any discipline, becomes final when the time for appeal has passed with no party filing an appeal or, if any appeal is filed, at the point when the appeal officer has resolved all appeals, either by dismissal or by transmittal of a written decision.

No further review beyond the appeal is permitted.

Although the length of each appeal will vary depending on the totality of the circumstances, TTIC strives to issue the appeal officer's written decision within seven (7) days of an appeal being filed.

XVII. ADVISOR OF CHOICE AND OTHER ACCOMPANYING PERSONS

From the point a Complaint is made that involves Sex-Based Harassment and a Student Complainant or Student Respondent, and until an investigation, adjudication, and appeal are complete, the Complainant and Respondent in such a case will have the right to be accompanied by an advisor of their choice to all meetings and interviews that are part of the investigation, adjudication, and appeal process. The advisor may be, but is not required to be, an attorney. The right to be accompanied by an advisor does not apply with regard to other Complaints of Sex Discrimination.

The advisor will play a passive role and is not permitted to communicate on behalf of a party, insist that communication flow through the advisor, or communicate with TTIC about the matter without the party being included in the communication. In the event a party’s advisor of choice engages in material violation of the parameters specified in this section, TTIC may preclude the advisor from further participation, in which case the party may select a new advisor of their choice.

TTIC is not required to provide a party with an advisor in any circumstance. For this reason, TTIC may prohibit its employees from serving as advisors where such service would interfere with the employee’s work or other obligations to TTIC or where such employee’s service would create a conflict of interest.

As a general matter, the advisor described in this section is the only person who may accompany a party to meetings and interviews. To the extent TTIC deviates from this rule and allows a party to be accompanied by one or more persons in addition to an advisor, the same right shall be extended to the other party.
XVIII. INADMISSIBLE EVIDENCE AND IMPERMISSIBLE QUESTIONING

During the investigation and adjudication processes, questioning and evidence of the following subject matters are inadmissible and impermissible:

- Evidence that is protected under a privilege as recognized by federal, state, or local law, unless the person to whom the privilege or confidentiality is owed has voluntarily waived the privilege or confidentiality.

- A party’s records that are maintained by a physician, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless TTIC obtains that party's voluntary, written consent for use in TTIC’s investigation and adjudication process.

- The Complainant’s sexual interests or prior sexual conduct unless such questions and/or evidence is offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the alleged conduct or is offered to prove consent with evidence concerning specific incidents of the Complainant’s prior sexual conduct with the Respondent. The fact of prior consensual sexual conduct between the Complainant and Respondent does not demonstrate or imply the Complainant’s consent to the alleged Sex Discrimination or preclude a determination that Sex Discrimination occurred.

XIX. INFORMAL RESOLUTION

At any time after the parties are provided written notice of the Complaint as specified in “Notice of Complaint,” and before the completion of any appeal specified in “Appeal,” the parties may voluntarily consent, with the Title IX Coordinator’s approval, to engage in mediation, facilitated resolution, or other form of dispute resolution the goal of which is to enter into a final resolution resolving the allegations raised in the Complaint by agreement of the parties. The Title IX Coordinator may reject the use of informal resolution in a specific case despite one or more of the parties’ wishes. Informal resolution will not be permitted in any case where informal resolution would otherwise conflict with federal, state, or local law.

The specific manner of any informal resolution process will be determined by the parties and the Title IX Coordinator, in consultation together. Prior to commencing the informal resolution process agreed upon, the Title IX Coordinator will transmit a written notice to the parties that:

- Describes the allegations if such notice has not already been provided in writing.

- Describes the parameters and requirements of the informal resolution process to be utilized.

- Identifies the individual responsible for facilitating the informal resolution (who may be the Title IX Coordinator, another TTIC official, or a suitable third-party, provided such person is not the investigator or adjudicator).
● Explains the effect of participating in informal resolution and/or reaching a final resolution will have on a party’s ability to resume the investigation and adjudication of the allegations at issue in the Complaint.

● Explains that either party has the right to withdraw from informal resolution and initiate or resume the investigation and adjudication process.

● Explains any other consequence resulting from participation in the informal resolution process, including a description of records that will be generated, maintained, and/or shared.

● Explains potential terms that may be requested or offered in the informal resolution, including restrictions on contact and restrictions on the Respondent’s participation in one or more of TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

● Explains that an informal resolution agreement is binding only on the parties.

● Describes which records will be maintained and shared.

● Explains if TTIC resumes its investigation and adjudication process, TTIC will not access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use information, including records, obtained solely through the informal resolution process as part of the investigation or determination of the Complaint.

● Explains that, if TTIC resumes its investigation and adjudication process, the person facilitating informal resolution could serve as a witness for purposes other than providing information obtained solely through the informal resolution process.

After receiving the written notice specified in this paragraph, each party must voluntarily provide written consent to the Title IX Coordinator, before the informal resolution may commence.

During the pendency of the informal resolution process, the investigation and adjudication processes that would otherwise occur are stayed and all related deadlines are suspended.

If the parties reach a resolution through the informal resolution process, and the Title IX Coordinator agrees that the resolution is not clearly unreasonable, the Title IX Coordinator will reduce the terms of the agreed resolution to writing and present the resolution to the parties for their written signature. Once both parties and the Title IX Coordinator sign the resolution, the resolution is final, and the allegations addressed by the resolution are considered resolved and will not be subject to further investigation, adjudication, remediation, or discipline by TTIC, except as otherwise provided in the resolution itself, absent a showing that a party induced the resolution by fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct or where required to avoid a manifest injustice to either party or to TTIC.
A party may withdraw their consent to participate in informal resolution at any time before a resolution has been finalized.

Absent extension by the Title IX Coordinator, any informal resolution process must be completed within twenty-one (21) days. If an informal resolution process does not result in a resolution within twenty-one (21) days, and absent an extension, abeyance, or other contrary ruling by the Title IX Coordinator, the informal resolution process will be deemed terminated, and the Complaint will be resolved pursuant to the investigation and adjudication procedures. The Title IX Coordinator may adjust any time periods or deadlines in the investigation and/or adjudication process that were suspended due to the informal resolution.

Nothing in this section diminishes the Title IX Coordinator’s obligation to take prompt and effective steps when necessary to ensure that Sex Discrimination does not continue or recur within TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

XX. PRESUMPTION OF NON-RESPONSIBILITY

From the time a Report or Complaint is made, a Respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged Sex Discrimination until an adjudication of responsibility is made final.

XXI. STUDENT PREGNANCY DISCLOSURE

A student who is, or becomes, pregnant or has a related condition is strongly encouraged to notify the Title IX Coordinator as soon as possible. By doing so, the student and the Title IX Coordinator can collaborate and develop an appropriate plan for the continuation of the student’s education in light of the unique nature of TTIC’s programs and requirements, as well as particular challenges the student may face while pregnant or while experiencing a pregnancy related condition.

If a TTIC employee is informed of a student’s pregnancy or related condition by a student or a person who has a legal right to act on behalf of the student, the employee must provide the student or the student’s representative with the Title IX Coordinator’s contact information for further assistance, unless the employee reasonably believes the Title IX Coordinator has already been notified.

The employee will also inform the student or the student’s representative that the Title IX Coordinator can coordinate specific actions to prevent sex discrimination and ensure the student’s equal access to TTIC’s education programs or activities. However, the choice to declare a student’s pregnancy is voluntary, and students and employees are not required to disclose this information to TTIC.

After being notified by a student or the student’s representative of the student’s pregnancy or related condition, the Title IX Coordinator will do the following:

- Inform the student about TTIC’s prohibition on sex discrimination, including sex-based harassment.
● Provide the student with the option of reasonable modifications due to the student's pregnancy or related conditions.

● Allow the student voluntary access to any separate and comparable portion of TTIC’s education programs or activities.

● Allow the student a voluntary leave of absence for medical reasons and reinstatement for the student upon return from leave.

● Provide the student with a private, clean space for lactation that is a space other than a bathroom and is shielded from view and free from intrusion from others.

TTIC will not require students to submit supporting documentation for the above items, unless the documentation is necessary and reasonable for TTIC to determine the reasonable modifications to make, or whether to take additional, specific actions. Situations where supporting documentation is not necessary may include, but are not limited to, when the student’s need for a specific action is obvious, such as when a student who is pregnant needs a bigger uniform; when the student has previously provided TTIC with sufficient supporting documentation; when the reasonable modification at issue is allowing a student to carry or keep water nearby and drink, use a bigger desk, sit or stand, or take breaks to eat, drink, or use the restroom; when the student has lactation needs; or when the requested action is available to other students for reasons other than pregnancy or related conditions and such students are not required to submit supporting documentation.

Additionally, TTIC will not require a student who is pregnant or has a related condition to provide certification from a healthcare provider or any other person that the student is physically able to participate in TTIC’s class, program, or extracurricular activity unless:

● The certified level of physical ability or health is necessary for the student’s participation in the class, program, or extracurricular activity;

● TTIC requires such certification of all students participating in the class, program, or extracurricular activity; and

● The information obtained is not used as a basis for discrimination.

XXII. OPTIONS AFTER STUDENT PREGNANCY DISCLOSURE

Once a student has voluntarily disclosed a pregnancy or related condition to TTIC, the student has the following options:

Continue in the Program

● If a student decides to continue in the program and desires to have any modifications to TTIC’s education programs and activities due to the pregnancy or related condition, the student should contact the Administrative Director of Graduate Studies to discuss any reasonable modifications that may be necessary for the student to continue in the program. Such modifications, if any, are discussed in Section V below, and will be documented in the form in Addendum A which will be signed by both the student and a TTIC representative.

- TTIC will also allow a student to voluntarily access any separate and comparable portion of TTIC’s education program or activity.

Voluntary Leave of Absence

- Students have the option to take a leave of absence due to pregnancy or related condition. However, such a leave of absence is not required. Should a student choose to take a leave of absence, a student is permitted to do so based on the medical recommendation of the student’s licensed healthcare provider.

- A leave of absence due to pregnancy or related condition may be for various amounts of time depending on a student’s particular circumstances and the period deemed medically necessary by the student’s licensed healthcare provider. Such a leave may be extended if deemed medically necessary by the student's licensed healthcare provider.

- Students are encouraged to communicate with faculty and supervisors regarding plans for leave to ensure a smooth return to campus.

- International students are further encouraged to contact their international advisor immediately, as a leave could require the student to leave the country.

- When a student returns from a leave of absence, the student will be reinstated to the same academic status and, where applicable, extracurricular status, that the student held prior to their leave of absence. This includes the opportunity to make up any work the student missed while on leave.

- If taking a leave of absence due to a pregnancy or related condition, the Education Plan in Addendum B will be discussed and signed by the student and a TTIC representative.

Withdraw from TTIC

- The student may, in their sole discretion, determine that they must withdraw from TTIC for an indefinite period or permanently due to their pregnancy or related condition. Existing TTIC withdrawal procedures, and readmission procedures (if applicable) apply.
XXIII.  REASONABLE MODIFICATIONS FOR STUDENTS

TTIC will treat pregnancy or related conditions, or temporary disability resulting from pregnancy or related conditions, consistent with TTIC’s policy on temporary medical conditions.

Reasonable modifications for pregnancy or related conditions will be provided to students based on their individualized needs. Such reasonable modifications will be identified through an interactive process with the student; however, a modification is not reasonable if it fundamentally alters the nature of TTIC’s education program or activity.

Reasonable modifications may include, but are not limited to:

- Breaks during class to attend to any necessary medical or lactation needs
- Access to online education
- Excused absences to attend medical appointments
- Schedule or course changes
- Test rescheduling
- Time extensions for coursework
- Counseling
- Physical space or supply changes
- Elevator access
- Other appropriate policy, practice, or procedure modifications

Students may accept or decline each reasonable modification offered by TTIC.

XXIV.  REASONABLE MODIFICATIONS FOR EMPLOYEES

TTIC will treat employee pregnancy or related conditions as any other temporary medical condition for all job-related purposes and will provide accommodations as appropriate. TTIC will further adhere to its leave policies for employee pregnancy or related conditions.

XXV.  LACTATION STATIONS & INFORMATION

TTIC provides a lactation station for breastfeeding students and employees. This space provides a private, clean area where students and employees are shielded from view and free from intrusion.
TTIC will also allow reasonable break time for employees to express breast milk or breastfeed as needed.

XXVI. RESOURCES

Any individual affected by or accused of Sex Discrimination will have equal access to support and counseling services offered through TTIC. TTIC encourages any individual who has questions or concerns to seek support of TTIC identified resources.

XXVII. CITY OF CHICAGO COMPLIANCE

Sex Discrimination, Sex-Based Harassment, and sexual harassment (as that term is defined by the City of Chicago) are unwelcome in the TTIC Community, and sexual harassment is illegal in the City of Chicago. Sexual harassment is defined by the City of Chicago as:

[A]ny (i) unwelcome sexual advances or unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature; (ii) requests for sexual favors or conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, or (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for any employment decision affecting the individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment; or (iii) sexual misconduct, which means any behavior of a sexual nature which also involves coercion, abuse of authority, or misuse of an individual's employment position.

Examples of sexual harassment as that term is defined by the City of Chicago may include touching a person in a way that makes that person feel uncomfortable, or an employee asking a supervisor not to touch an employee but the supervisor continues to do so.

To the extent there is any conflict between Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”) and its implementing regulations and this section regarding the City of Chicago’s requirements, Title IX will govern.

Additionally, in compliance with Chicago’s requirements, all TTIC employees will participate in sexual harassment prevention training annually. Employees shall participate in a minimum of one hour of sexual harassment prevention training annually, anyone who supervises or manages employees shall participate in a minimum of two hours of sexual harassment prevention training annually, and all employees must participate in one hour of bystander training annually.

XXVIII. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST, BIAS, AND PROCEDURAL COMPLAINTS

The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, adjudicator, appeals officer, informal resolution facilitator, and other officials implementing this Policy will be free of any material conflicts of interest or material bias. Any party who believes one or more of these TTIC officials has a material conflict of interest or material bias must raise the concern to the Title IX Coordinator in writing promptly so that TTIC may evaluate the concern and find a substitute, if appropriate. If the concern is regarding the Title IX Coordinator, it may be addressed in writing to the President. The failure of a party to timely raise a concern of a conflict of interest or bias may result in a waiver of the issue for purposes of any appeal specified in “Appeal,” or otherwise.

XXIX. OBJECTIONS GENERALLY

Parties are expected to raise any objections, concerns, or complaints about the investigation, adjudication, and appeals process in a prompt and timely manner so that TTIC may evaluate the matter and address it, if appropriate.

XXX. CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND ACADEMIC FREEDOM

TTIC will construe and apply this Policy consistent with the U.S. Constitution and TTIC’s principles of academic freedom. In no case will a Respondent be found to have violated this Policy based on conduct that is protected by the U.S. Constitution and/or principles of academic freedom.

XXXI. RELATIONSHIP WITH CRIMINAL PROCESS

This Policy sets forth TTIC’s processes for responding to Reports and Complaints of Sex Discrimination. TTIC’s processes are separate, distinct, and independent of any criminal processes. While TTIC may temporarily delay its processes under this Policy to avoid interfering with law enforcement efforts if requested by law enforcement, TTIC will otherwise apply this Policy and its processes without regard to the status or outcome of any criminal process.

XXXII. RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER LEGAL PROCESS

In some cases, allegations of Sex Discrimination under this Policy may be the subject of parallel civil lawsuits, administrative complaints, or regulatory processes under federal, state, or local law. The pendency of such parallel litigation may necessitate a delay or modification of the processes set forth in this Policy, especially where the processes in this Policy might interfere with the authority of a court or regulatory body with jurisdiction over such parallel litigation, violate rules or orders governing such parallel litigation, violate the rights of a party in such parallel litigation, or create a conflict of interest for TTIC itself. In such instances, TTIC retains discretion to pause, modify, or terminate proceedings under this Policy.

XXXIII. RECORDINGS

Wherever this Policy specifies that an audio or video recording will be made, the recording will be made only by TTIC and is considered property of TTIC, subject to any right of access that a party may have under this Policy, FERPA, and other applicable federal, state, or local laws. Only TTIC is permitted to make audio or video recordings under this Policy. The surreptitious recording of any meeting, interview or other interaction contemplated under this Policy is strictly prohibited.
XXXIV. VOLUNTEERS, VENDORS, CONTRACTORS AND THIRD PARTIES

TTIC does business with various volunteers, vendors, contractors, and other third-parties who are not Students or Employees of TTIC. Notwithstanding any rights that a given volunteer, vendor, contractor, or third-party Respondent may have under this Policy, TTIC retains its right to limit any volunteer, vendor, contractor, or third-party’s access to campus for any reason. And TTIC retains all rights it enjoys by contract or law to terminate its relationship with any volunteer, vendor, contractor, or third-party irrespective of any process or outcome under this Policy.

XXXV. BAD FAITH COMPLAINTS AND FALSE INFORMATION

It is a violation of this Policy for any person to submit, or to aid or abet another to submit, a Report or Complaint that the person knows, at the time the Report or Complaint is submitted, to be false or frivolous. It is also a violation of this Policy for any person to knowingly make, or to aid or abet another to make, a materially false statement during the course of an investigation, adjudication, or appeal under this Policy, although a party, witness, or other person who knowingly makes a materially false statement will not be punished based solely on TTIC’s determination of whether Sex Discrimination occurred. Violations of this section are not subject to the investigation and adjudication processes in this Policy; instead, they will be addressed under the procedure detailed in the Student Handbook in the case of students and other TTIC policies and standards, as applicable, for other persons.

XXXVI. RETALIATION

It is a violation of this policy to engage in Retaliation. Reports and Complaints of Retaliation may be made in the manner specified in “Reporting Sex Discrimination,” and “Making a Complaint.” Any Report or Complaint of Retaliation will be processed under this Policy in the same manner as a Report or Complaint of Sex Discrimination, as the case may be. TTIC retains discretion to consolidate a Complaint of Retaliation with a Complaint of Sex Discrimination for investigation and/or adjudication purposes if the two Complaints share a common nexus.

Retaliation for reporting Sex Discrimination or Sex-Based Harassment is further illegal in the City of Chicago.

XXXVII. CONFIDENTIALITY

TTIC will keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a Report or Complaint of Sex Discrimination or Retaliation including any Complainant, the identity of any individual who has been reported to be a perpetrator of Sex Discrimination or Retaliation including any Respondent, and the identity of any witness or other participant in TTIC’s investigation and adjudication processes except:

- When the individual has provided prior written consent to disclose their identity.
- When disclosure is permitted by FERPA or its implementing regulations.
● As otherwise required by applicable federal, state, or local law;

● As required by Federal regulations or the terms and conditions of a Federal award, including a grant award or other funding agreement; or

● As necessary to carry out the purposes of Title IX and its implementing regulations, including the requirement to take action to address potential Sex Discrimination under TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

TTIC will also maintain the confidentiality of its various records generated in response to Reports and Complaints, including, but not limited to, information concerning Supportive Measures, notices, investigation materials, adjudication records, and appeal records. Notwithstanding the foregoing, TTIC may disclose any record if permitted by FERPA or its implementing regulations, as otherwise required by applicable federal, state, or local law, or as necessary to carry out the purposes of Title IX and its implementing regulations, including the requirement to address potential Sex Discrimination under TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

Further, notwithstanding TTIC’s general obligation to maintain confidentiality as specified herein, the parties to a Complaint will be given access to investigation and adjudication materials in the circumstances specified in this Policy. Such investigation and adjudication materials, including the investigation report and appended evidence, and the written decision, are for the sole use of the party (and, if the party is entitled to one, an advisor) in the proceedings contemplated by this Policy; such materials may not be disseminated to third parties or otherwise published. If a party violates the confidentiality rules governing investigation and adjudication materials, the party is subject to disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct in the case of a student, and other TTIC policies and standards, as applicable, for other persons.

While TTIC will maintain confidentiality specified in this section, TTIC will not limit the ability of the parties to discuss the allegations at issue in a particular case. Parties are advised, however, that the manner in which they communicate about, or discuss a particular case, may constitute Sex Discrimination or Retaliation in certain circumstances and be subject to discipline pursuant to the processes specified in this Policy.

Certain types of Sex Discrimination are considered crimes for which TTIC must disclose crime statistics in its Annual Security Report that is provided to the campus community and available to the public. These disclosures will be made without including personally identifying information.

XXXVIII. OTHER VIOLATIONS OF THIS POLICY

Alleged violations of this Policy, other than violations of the prohibitions on Sex Discrimination and Retaliation, will be subject to review and resolution under the Student Code of Conduct for Students, and other TTIC policies and standards, as applicable, for other persons.
XXXIX. AMNESTY

TTIC recognizes that Students who have consumed or possessed alcohol when they are not 21 years of age or who have used or possessed illegal drugs may be hesitant to report Sex-Based Harassment against them or others. Therefore, TTIC will not take disciplinary action under its alcohol or drug policies against a student who discloses illegal alcohol or illegal drug use or possession in the context of reporting Sex-Based Harassment directed against them or another person. However, TTIC reserves the right to require counseling, education, or other preventative measures to help prevent alcohol or drug use or possession violations in the future. TTIC’s commitment to amnesty in these situations does not prevent action by police or other legal authorities against an individual. Amnesty does not extend to violations of alcohol or drug policies that TTIC determines are egregious, including without limitation an action that places the health or safety of any other person at risk.

XL. SIGNATURES AND FORM OF CONSENT

For purposes of this Policy, either a physical signature or digital signature will be sufficient to satisfy any obligation that a document be signed. Where this Policy provides that written consent must be provided, consent in either physical or electronic form, containing a physical or digital signature, as the case may be, will suffice.

XLI. DEADLINES, TIME, NOTICES, AND METHOD OF TRANSMITTAL

Where this Policy specifies a period of days by which some act must be performed, the following method of calculation applies:

- Exclude the day of the event that triggers the period.

- Count every day, including intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays recognized by the federal government.

- Include the last day of the period until 5:00 p.m. central time, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday recognized by the federal government, the period continues to run until 5:00 p.m. central time on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday recognized by the federal government.

All deadlines and other time periods specified in this Policy are subject to modification by TTIC where, in TTIC’s sole discretion, good cause exists. Good cause may include, but is not limited to, the unavailability of parties or witnesses; the complexities of a given case; extended holidays or closures; sickness of the investigator, adjudicator, or the parties; the need to consult with TTIC’s legal counsel; unforeseen weather events; and the like.

Any party who wishes to seek an extension of any deadline or other time period may do so by filing a request with the investigator, adjudicator, appeals officer, or Title IX Coordinator, as the case may be, depending on the phase of the process. Such request must state the extension sought and explain what good cause exists for the requested extension. TTIC officer resolving the request for extension may, but is not required to, give the other party an opportunity to object. Whether to grant such a requested extension will be in the sole discretion of TTIC.

The parties will be provided written notice of the modification of any deadline or time period specified in this Policy, along with the reasons for the modification.

Where this Policy refers to notice being given to parties “simultaneously,” notice will be deemed simultaneous if it is provided in relative proximity on the same day. It is not necessary that notice be provided at exactly the same hour and minute.

Unless otherwise specified in this Policy, the default method of transmission for all notices, reports, responses, and other forms of communication specified in this Policy will be email using TTIC email addresses. If a party does not have a TTIC email address, the party will be required to provide an email address to the Title IX Coordinator at the inception of a matter. A party may not insist or demand that TTIC communicate only through a party’s representative, including an attorney.

A party is deemed to have received notice upon transmittal of an email to their TTIC email address or, if they do not have a TTIC email address, the email address they supply to the Title IX Coordinator at the inception of a matter.

If unforeseen circumstances necessitate notice be provided by U.S. mail, a party will be deemed to have received notice three (3) days after the notice in question is postmarked.

Any notice inviting or requiring a party or witness to attend a meeting or interview will be provided with sufficient time for the party to prepare for the meeting or interview as the case may be, and will include relevant details such as the date, time, location, purpose, and participants. Unless a specific number of days is specified elsewhere in this Policy, the sufficient time to be provided will be determined in the sole discretion of TTIC, considering all the facts and circumstances, including, but not limited to, the nature of the meeting or interview; the nature and complexity of the allegations at issue; the schedules of relevant TTIC officials; approaching holidays or closures; and the number and length of extensions already granted.

XLII. OTHER FORMS OF DISCRIMINATION

This policy applies only to Sex Discrimination. Complaints of other forms of protected-status discrimination, such as discrimination based on race, national origin, ethnicity, age, and disability, are governed by the Discrimination, Harassment and Abusive Behavior Policy.

XLIII. FACTS AND DETERMINATIONS BINDING

If a Complaint is dismissed or proceeds to a written decision of adjudication, and after any such dismissal or written decision is final, the facts and determinations made by TTIC are binding on the parties and may not be relitigated, challenged, or otherwise collaterally attacked by the parties in any other TTIC process or procedure. Additionally, a Complainant may not file successive Complaints under this Policy about the same incident or course of conduct, even if the Complainant alleges a new theory of Sex Discrimination arising from the same incident or course of conduct that was the subject of a prior written decision. Further, to the extent a complaint of Policy and Practice Discrimination has proceeded to a written decision, such written decision is binding on different Complainants with respect to the same Policy and Practice Discrimination, unless such different Complainant alleges materially different facts that could result in a different outcome.

XLIV. OUTSIDE APPOINTMENTS, DUAL APPOINTMENTS, AND DELEGATIONS

TTIC retains discretion to retain and appoint suitably qualified persons who are not TTIC employees to fulfill any function of TTIC under this Policy, including, but not limited to, the Title IX Coordinator, investigator, adjudicator, informal resolution facilitator, and/or appeals officer.

TTIC also retains discretion to appoint two or more persons to jointly fulfill the role of investigator, adjudicator, informal resolution facilitator, and/or appeals officer.

The functions assigned to a given TTIC official under this Policy, including but not limited to the functions assigned to the Title IX Coordinator, investigator, adjudicator, informal resolution facilitator, and appeals officer, may, in TTIC’s discretion, be delegated by such TTIC official to any suitably qualified individual and such delegation may be recalled by TTIC at any time.

XLV. DUAL STATUS PERSONS

Where an individual is both a Student and an Employee of TTIC, and to the extent the distinction between Student or Employee status is material for any standard, obligation, right, or process set forth in this Policy, the Title IX Coordinator will determine the individual’s status for purposes of this Policy. Such determination shall be made after a fact-specific inquiry that includes consideration of relevant circumstances, including whether the individual’s primary relationship to TTIC is to receive an education or to work, and in what capacity the person was acting (or failing to act) with regard to the events in question.

XLVI. EXERCISE OF RIGHTS

The rights afforded to Complainants and Respondents throughout this Policy are personal to Complainants and Respondents and may not be exercised by a third-party unless the third-party has the legal right to act on the party’s behalf. As a general rule, parents do not have the right to act on behalf of adult students and are not entitled to participate in the investigation and adjudication processes in this Policy unless they are acting in the role of an advisor as described in “Advisor of Choice and Other Accompanying Persons.” If a Complaint alleges Policy and Practice Discrimination against TTIC itself, such that no individual person is a Respondent, the relevant department or unit whose policy or practice is at issue may appoint an individual to represent the department or unit’s interest. and to act as a nominal Respondent in such individual’s official capacity on behalf of the department or unit at issue.

XLVII. TRAINING

TTIC will ensure that all Employees, and TTIC officials acting under this Policy, including but not limited to the Title IX Coordinator, investigators, adjudicators, informal resolution facilitators, TTIC-provided advisors, and appeals officers receive training in compliance with Title IX and its implementing regulations, the Illinois Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act, and any other applicable federal, state, or local laws. TTIC’s training materials can be requested by contacting the Title IX Coordinator.

XLVIII. RECORDKEEPING

TTIC will retain those records specified in 34 C.F.R. § 106.8(f) for a period of seven years after which point in time they may be destroyed, or continue to be retained, in TTIC’s sole discretion. Such materials will be made available for inspection and review only to the extent required by Title IX and its implementing regulations and/or other applicable federal, state, and/or local laws.

XLIX. CHANGES IN THE LAW

In the event a change in controlling law conflicts with some provision of this Policy, necessitates the modification of some provision of this Policy, or mandates the inclusion of new provisions not included, TTIC may immediately apply the Policy in a manner consistent with such controlling law, after providing written notice to the parties of the change in controlling law, even if the Policy has yet to be formally amended to address the change in controlling law.

L. DEFINITIONS

Words used in this Policy will have those meanings defined herein and/or in Appendix 1 and if not defined herein or in Appendix 1 will be construed according to their plain and ordinary meaning.

LI. DISCRETION IN APPLICATION

TTIC retains discretion to interpret and apply this Policy in a manner that is not clearly unreasonable, even if TTIC’s interpretation or application differs from the interpretation of the parties.

Despite TTIC’s reasonable efforts to anticipate all eventualities in drafting this Policy, it is possible unanticipated or extraordinary circumstances may not be specifically or reasonably addressed by the express language, in which case TTIC retains discretion to respond to the unanticipated or extraordinary circumstance in a way that is not clearly unreasonable.
The provisions of this Policy are not contractual in nature, whether in their own right, or as part of any other express or implied contract. Accordingly, TTIC retains discretion to revise this Policy and Policy revisions to an active case provided that doing so is not clearly unreasonable.
APPENDIX 1: DEFINITIONS

“Adverse Treatment Sex Discrimination” means material, adverse action taken against a person where the motivating factor for the action is Sex-Based except where such action is permitted by law. The adverse action need not be sexual in nature to constitute Adverse Treatment Sex Discrimination.

“Coercion” means the use of force, physical restraint, threats of harm, intimidation, misuse of authority, blackmail, or other unreasonable pressure.

“Complainant” means:

- A Student or Employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could be prohibited by this Policy via TTIC’s complaint resolution procedure; or
- A person other than a Student or Employee who is alleged to have been subjected to conduct that could be prohibited by this Policy and who was participating or attempting to participate in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities when the alleged conduct occurred.

“Complaint” means an oral or written request to TTIC to initiate an investigation and adjudication of alleged Sex Discrimination pursuant to the procedures in this Policy.

“Confidential Advisor” means a person who is employed or contracted by TTIC to provide emergency and ongoing support to student survivors of sexual violence with the training, duties, and responsibilities described in the Illinois Preventing Sexual Violence in Higher Education Act.

“Consent” means freely given words or actions that a reasonable person in the position of the Respondent would understand as agreement to engage in the sexual conduct at issue. A person’s lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission resulting from the use of threat of force does not constitute consent. A person’s manner of dress does not constitute consent. A person’s consent to past sexual activity does not constitute consent to future sexual activity. A person’s consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not constitute consent to engage in sexual activity with a different person. A person who is Incapacitated is not capable of giving Consent, and a person who is under the age of consent cannot consent. Consent cannot be procured through Coercion. A person can withdraw consent at any time.

“Dating Violence” is violence committed by a person –

- Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and
- Where the existence of such a relationship will be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
The length of the relationship;
The type of relationship; and
The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

“Domestic Violence” is felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a person who:

- Is a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim under the family or domestic violence laws of the State of Illinois, or a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim;
- Is cohabitating, or has cohabitated, with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- Shares a child in common with the victim; or
- Commits acts against a youth or adult victim who is protected from those acts under the family or domestic violence laws of the State of Illinois.

“Employee” means a person who is paid wages to perform services for TTIC. Volunteers and independent contractors are not Employees.

“Education Programs or Activities” refers to:

- Activity occurring under any of the operations of TTIC in the United States, including, but not limited to, in-person and online educational instruction, admissions, employment, research activities, extracurricular activities, athletics, residence life, dining services, performances, and community engagement and outreach programs.
- Activity that occurs on campus or on other property owned or occupied by TTIC.
- Activity that occurs in a building owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by TTIC.
- Activity that is subject to TTIC’s disciplinary authority.

“FERPA” refers to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, which is a federal law governing the confidentiality of a Student’s education records and a Student’s right to access, review, and seek amendment of education records.

“Hostile Environment Harassment” is unwelcome sex-based conduct that, based on the totality of the circumstances, is subjectively and objectively offensive and is so severe or pervasive that it limits or denies a person’s ability to participate in or benefit from TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities. Whether a hostile environment has been created is a fact-specific inquiry that includes consideration of:

- The degree to which the conduct affected the person’s ability to access TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.
- The type, frequency, and duration of the conduct.
- The parties’ ages, roles within TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities, previous interactions, and other factors about each party that may be relevant to evaluating the effects of the conduct.
- The location of the conduct and the context in which the conduct occurred.
- Other Sex-Based harassment in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities.

“Incapacitated” or “Incapacity” refers to the state where a person does not appreciate the nature or fact of sexual activity due to the effect of drugs or alcohol consumption, medical condition or disability, or due to a state of unconsciousness or sleep.

“Parental Status” means a person who is a biological parent; adoptive parent; stepparent; foster parent; legal custodian or guardian; in loco parentis with respect to a person; or a person who is actively seeking custody, guardianship, visitation, or adoption of a person.

“Policy” refers to TTIC’s Sex Discrimination and Sex-Based Harassment Policy.

“Policy or Practice Discrimination” means a TTIC policy, practice, or condition that has the effect of excluding or limiting a person from participating in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities on a Sex-Based category or that results in inequitable access to TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities on a Sex-Based category except where such action is permitted by law.

“Pregnancy or Related Conditions” means:

- Pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, or lactation;
- Medical conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy or lactation;
- Recovery from pregnancy, childbirth, termination of pregnancy, lactation, or their related medical conditions.

“Quid Pro Quo Harassment” is an Employee, agent, or other person authorized to provide an aid, benefit, or service of TTIC explicitly or implicitly conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of TTIC on a person’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
“Relevant” means related to the allegations of Sex Discrimination that are subject to investigation and adjudication as set forth in this Policy. Questions are relevant when they seek evidence that may aid in showing whether the alleged Sex Discrimination occurred, and evidence is Relevant when it may aid an adjudicator in determining whether the alleged Sex Discrimination occurred.

“Report” means an oral or written notification of alleged Sex Discrimination.

“Respondent” means a person who is alleged, via this Policy, to have engaged in conduct that could be prohibited by this Policy.

“Retaliation” is intimidation, threats, Coercion, or discrimination against any person by a Student, Employee, person authorized by TTIC to provide aid, benefit or service under TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities, or TTIC itself, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or its implementing regulations, or because the person has reported information, made a Complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in any investigation or proceeding under this Policy, or any other appropriate steps taken by TTIC in response to conduct prohibited by this Policy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Retaliation does not include requiring an Employee or person authorized by TTIC to provide aid, benefit, or service under TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities to participate as a witness in, or otherwise assist with, an investigation or proceeding under this Policy. Retaliation includes initiating disciplinary process against a person for a violation of another TTIC conduct standard that does not involve Sex Discrimination but arises out of the same facts and circumstances of a Complaint or information about potential Sex Discrimination, if initiating such other disciplinary process is done for the purpose of interfering with the exercise of any right or privilege of Title IX. Retaliation can be committed by a peer. Retaliation does not include any conduct that a party has a right to engage in under the U.S. Constitution.

“Sex-Based” means on the basis of:

- sex
- sex stereotypes
- sex characteristics
- pregnancy or related conditions
- sexual orientation
- gender identity.

“Sex Discrimination” is an omnibus term that includes Adverse Treatment Sex Discrimination, Policy or Practice Discrimination, and Sex-Based Harassment.
“Sexual Assault” consists of one or more of the following:

- Rape: Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, or by a sex-related object. This definition also includes instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (include due to the influence of drugs or alcohol) or because of age. Physical resistance is not required on the part of the victim to demonstrate lack of consent.

- Fondling: The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is unable to give consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

- Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by Illinois law.

- Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of Consent as defined by Illinois law.

“Sex-Based Harassment” is a form of Sex Discrimination and consists of sexual and other Sex-Based harassment that constitutes Quid Pro Quo Harassment, Hostile Environment Harassment, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, or Stalking.

“Stalking” is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

- Fear for their safety or the safety of others; or

- Suffer substantial emotional distress.

“Student” means a person who has gained admission to TTIC, whether or not they have matriculated.

“Supportive Measures” are non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized measures offered, as appropriate, as reasonably available, without unreasonably burdening a party, and without fee or charge to the Complainant or Respondent to (i) restore or preserve that party’s access to TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities, including measures that are designed to protect the safety of the parties or TTIC’s educational environment, or (ii) provide support during TTIC’s investigation and adjudication process under this Policy, including any informal resolution process. Examples of Supportive Measures that may be available depending on the facts of a particular matter include: counseling; extensions of deadlines and other academic adjustments; campus escort services; increased security and monitoring for certain areas of campus; restrictions on contact between parties; honoring an order of protection or no contact order entered by a State civil or criminal court; leaves of absence; voluntary and involuntary changes to class, work, housing, dining, or extracurricular or any other activity; and training and education.

“TTIC Community” means all persons who participate in TTIC’s Education Programs or Activities, including board members, administrators, faculty, staff, other Employees, Students, volunteers, guests, and contractors.
